

Maximize FoodShare Dollars

During the COVID-19 pandemic, a federal program gave FoodShare members extra benefits, plus the regular amount. Now, due to recent changes to federal law, the extra amounts are ending. February 2023 is the last month members will get extra benefits. Qualifying families will continue to get their regular FoodShare amounts.

Find More information

Read news & updates.

dhs.wisconsin.gov/foodshare/news.htm

Find food resources

Call 211 or 877-947-2211 to ask questions & find local resources. Additional food resources are listed at dhs.wisconsin.gov/foodshare/resources.htm

Check other state benefit programs for eligibility.

Log in to your ACCESS account at access.wi.gov and click "See if you can get help." Then, answer a few questions to see if there are other state programs to help you. Other options are also listed at <https://dhs.wisconsin.gov/nutrition/index.htm>.

Your county UW-Madison Division of Extension FoodWise program staff are a great resource for stretching FoodShare dollars.

Contact Hailee Paul in Waupaca County at (715) 258-6261 or hailee.struck@wisc.edu

Locate Local Food Resources

Free or reduced price school meals

Contact your school to see if your child qualified for free or reduced price meals at school.

Emergency Food Resources

- Waupaca Area Community Pantry
- Weymont Food Pantry
- Manawa Food Pantry
- Clintonville Area Food Pantry
- Christian Food Pantry (New London)
- Salvation Army (New London)
- Iola Area Food Pantry
- Waupaca Bread Basket
- Neighbor to Neighbor Meals (Manawa)
- Loves & Fishes
- Waupaca Public Library

Community Meal Sites

The Waupaca County Nutrition Program provides home delivered meals, and serves community meals for seniors at sites in

- Clintonville
- Iola
- Manawa
- Marion
- New London
- Waupaca
- Weyauwega

Call (715) 258-6400 for more information

Local Women, Infant & Children (WIC) Office

For information about WIC or to apply, call (715) 258-6391 or visit this link https://www.waupacacounty-wi.gov/departments/health_and_human_services/wic.php